WASHINGTON - Congressman John W. Olver (1st District) released the following statement today: "I "Iraq is in the early throes of a civil war. Iraqis must make a choice between a stable nation, ruled by I "Escalation of America's military role with air strikes and search and destroy missions in the Sunni urb "At this very late date virtually everyone agrees that peace and stability for Iraq cannot be secured mi "We should deemphasize our military role except to deny haven to Al Qaeda. We should substitute a "If the Iraqis choose civil war, we should disengage and redeploy our troops away from involvement in